Ms. Marisa Elmore Assistant District Attorney Dallas County 133 North Industrial Boulevard, LB-19 Dallas, Texas 75207-4399

OR2004-4588

Dear Ms. Elmore:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 202925.

The District Attorney for Dallas County (the "district attorney") received a request for information relating to three specified case numbers. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and have reviewed the information you submitted.¹

Initially, we address your representation that some of the submitted information relates to grand jury proceedings. This office has concluded that a grand jury is not a governmental body that is subject to the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code, so that records that are within the actual or constructive possession of a grand jury are not subject to disclosure under the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.003(1)(B) (Act's definition of governmental body does not include judiciary); Open Records Decision No. 513 at 3 (1988) (information held by grand jury, which is extension of judiciary for purposes of Act, is not itself subject to Act). When an individual or an entity acts at the direction of the grand jury as its agent, information prepared or collected by the agent is within the grand jury's constructive possession and is not subject to the Act. See Open Records Decision No. 513 at 3. Information that is not so held or maintained is subject to the Act and may be withheld from the public only if a specific exception to disclosure is shown to be applicable. Id. Thus, to the extent that the district attorney has custody of the submitted information as agent of the grand jury, such information is in the grand jury's constructive possession and is not subject to disclosure under the Act. Id. at 4. The rest of this decision is not applicable to any such information. To the extent that the district attorney does not have custody of the submitted information as agent of the grand jury, we address your arguments against disclosure.

¹This letter ruling assumes that the submitted representative samples of information are truly representative of the requested information as a whole. This ruling neither reaches nor authorizes the district attorney to withhold any information that is substantially different from the submitted information. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(D); Open Records Decision Nos. 499 at 6 (1988), 497 at 4 (1988).

We next note that the submitted information includes arrest warrants and affidavits for arrest warrants. Article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was amended by the 78th Legislature to add language providing:

The arrest warrant, and any affidavit presented to the magistrate in support of the issuance of the warrant, is public information, and beginning immediately when the warrant is executed the magistrate's clerk shall make a copy of the warrant and the affidavit available for public inspection in the clerk's office during normal business hours. A person may request the clerk to provide copies of the warrant and affidavit on payment of the cost of providing the copies.

Act of May 31, 2003, 78th Leg., R.S., ch. 390, § 1, Tex. Sess. Laws Serv. 1631 (codified as amendment to Crim. Proc. Code art. 15.26) (emphasis added). In this instance, the submitted information includes executed arrest warrants and the affidavits for the warrants. Article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure makes these documents public. As a general rule, the exceptions to disclosure found in the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code, do not apply to information that is made public by other statutes. See Open Records Decision Nos. 623 at 3 (1994), 525 at 3 (1989). Therefore, the arrest warrants and the affidavits for arrest warrants that we have marked must be released to the requestor.

The rest of the submitted information appears to be subject to section 552.022 of the Government Code. Section 552.022 provides that the following categories of information are public information and not excepted from required disclosure under this chapter unless they are expressly confidential under other law:

(1) a completed report, audit, evaluation, or investigation made of, or, or by a governmental body, except as provided by Section 552.108[.]

Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(1). In this instance, the submitted documentation reflects that the remaining information is part of completed investigations made of, for, or by the district attorney. A completed investigation must be released under section 552.022(a)(1), unless the information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 or expressly confidential under other law. Section 552.103 of the Government Code, which the district attorney raises, is a discretionary exception to disclosure that protects the governmental body's interests and may be waived.² As such, this exception is not other law that makes information confidential for the purposes of section 552.022. Therefore, the district attorney may not withhold information that is subject to section 552.022(a)(1) under section 552.103.

The district attorney also seeks to withhold the rest of the submitted information under section 552.108. This section provides in part:

- (a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:
 - (4) it is information that:
 - (A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or
 - (B) represents the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.
- (b) An internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:
 - (3) the internal record or notation:
 - (A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or ²See Dallas Area Rapid Transit v. Dallas Morning News, 4 S.W.3d 469, 475-76 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1999, no pet.) (governmental body may waive Gov't Code § 552.103); Open Records Decision No. 542 at 4 (1990) (statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.103 was subject to waiver).

(B) represents the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(4), (b)(3). A governmental body that claims an exception to disclosure under section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why this exception is applicable to the information that the governmental body seeks to withhold. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977); Open Records Decision No. 434 at 2-3 (1986).

In Curry v. Walker, 873 S.W.2d 379 (Tex. 1994), the Texas Supreme Court held that a request for a district attorney's "entire litigation file" was "too broad" and, quoting National Union Fire Insurance Co. v. Valdez, 863 S.W.2d 458 (Tex. 1993, orig. proceeding), held that "the decision as to what to include in [the file] necessarily reveals the attorney's thought processes concerning the prosecution or defense of the case." Curry, 873 S.W.2d at 380. In this instance, the requestor seeks access to "[t]he written or recorded or otherwise held contents of [the district attorney's] files" in three specified cases. Your office interprets this request for information as a request for the district attorney's entire criminal litigation files in the referenced cases. You assert that the rest of the submitted information reflects the mental impressions, opinions, legal reasoning, and conclusions of the attorneys representing the state. You also contend that the information gathered, developed, and organized by prosecutors, their investigators, or agents in preparation for trial constitutes attorney work product. Based on your representations and our review of the remaining information at issue, we agree that section 552.108(a)(4) and (b)(3) is applicable in this instance.

We note that section 552.108 does not except from disclosure "basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime." Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). The district attorney must release basic front-page information with regard to each of the three cases, including detailed descriptions of the offenses involved, even if this information does not literally appear on the front page of an offense or arrest report. See Houston Chronicle, 531 S.W.2d at 186-187; Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). With the exception of the arrest warrants and affidavits, the district attorney may withhold the rest of the submitted information that is subject to the Act under section 552.108(a)(4) and (b)(3).

In summary: (1) to the extent that the district attorney has custody of the submitted information as agent of the grand jury, such information is in the grand jury's constructive possession and is not subject to disclosure under the Act; (2) the district attorney must release the arrest warrants and the affidavits for the warrants under article 15.26 of the Code of Criminal Procedure; and (3) except for the basic information that must be released under section 552.108(c), the district attorney may withhold the rest of the submitted information that is subject to the Act under section 552.108(a)(4) and (b)(3) of the Government Code. As we are able to make these determinations, we need not address your other arguments against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

James W. Morris, III Assistant Attorney General Open Records Division
